

1. We get full screen map by clicking on map's name and double click it.

After double click map is seen through the whole screen. Other windows are moved from static to dynamic view on the sides of the map.

We can return back to original view also by double clicking on name of the map.

